Citizens Police Academy

Pierce Township Police Department
Pride in Pierce

The Citizens Police Academy is a ten week program that allows attendees to interact with police officers while they learn about the day-to-day operations of the Pierce Township Police Department. Classes meet for three hours one night per week, and are provided at no charge to attendees.

The class is open to non-Pierce township residents. However, Pierce township residents are given preference when the class roster is being selected. Applicants must be 18 years old or older by the start date of the academy and must have a valid Ohio driver's license..
